Call For Papers

The United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) remarkably adopted in September 2015 cannot just be regarded as a mere "extension" of the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) adopted 15 years earlier ؛ their scope is much broader، and the change they advocate is significantly more profound.

By 2030، world governments have committed themselves to build frameworks that may simultaneously promote equitable economic development، social inclusion، as well as environmental sustainability.

Goal 2. End hunger، achieve food security and improved nutrition and promote sustainable agriculture؛

Goal 3. Ensure healthy lives and promote well-being for all at all ages؛

Goal 4. Ensure inclusive and equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all؛

Goal 5. Achieve gender equality and empower all women and girls؛

Goal 6. Ensure availability and sustainable management of water and sanitation for all؛

Goal 7. Ensure access to affordable، reliable، sustainable and modern energy for all؛

Goal 8. Promote sustained، inclusive and sustainable economic growth، full and productive employment and decent work for all؛

Goal 14.Conserve and sustainably use the oceans، seas and marine resources for sustainable development؛

Goal 15.Protect، restore and promote sustainable use of terrestrial ecosystems، sustainably manage forests، combat desertification، and halt and reverse land degradation and halt biodiversity loss؛

Goal 16.Promote peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development، provide access to justice for all and build effective، accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels؛

Goal 17.Strengthen the means of implementation and revitalize the global partnership for sustainable development.

The SDGs comprehensively address the most pressing multidimensional، interdependent challenges of modern times، whilst creating an amazing opportunity for shared، sustainable solutions.

The streams of the conference is constructed to demonstrate the "5P-keywords" of the Sustainable Development Goals' agenda؛
