Why participate in icCSBs 2014, a poster-only conference in 2014?

1. Virtual posters abstracts can be read in the formal online program and in the conference proceedings.
2. Your organization will gain national and international exposure among virtual poster presenters throughout the world. Any visitor of the conference website, virtual poster presenters and visitors at the exhibition center tes can review all virtual posters.
3. The Conference Exchange will create a certificate, suitable for framing, acknowledging and documenting a conference presentation. Presenters can incorporate that certificate into their professional documentation.
4. Protection of intellectual property rights has been an emphasis of the technology development from the beginning, and many measures are in place to protect the author's work.

What is the format for a virtual poster presentation?

1. The formal format of the poster is described in the rules at the conference website. The official language of the poster presentations are English and French.
2. Virtual posters involve the electronic submission of a presentation in a standard PowerPoint format. After the presentation is accepted, participants can access posters via the conference website.
3. All presentations will be printed and presented in the exhibition center of the Exhibition Saloon in Turkey from 14 through 17 May. The exhibition will be open to interested academicians, student, and researchers.
3. Authors can discuss their research with colleagues via e-mail.

4. This conference is designed to enable any person to share research findings in an international environment and publish full text papers via the peer-reviewed European Journal of Social in Behavioural Sciencess and in the to peer-reviewed European Procedia – Social and Behavioural Sciences, a publication registered with the International Centre for the Registration of Serial publications in Paris.

11. icCSBs 2015 will be an in-persony conference.
