

Twenty-First International Conference on Learning

New York City, USA
Lander College for Women
Touro College
14-17 July 2014

Dear Delegate,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee and the International Advisory Board, we are pleased to announce the Call for Papers for the Twenty-First International Conference on Learning and the Call for Submissions to The Learner Collection of journals.

The 2014 Learning Conference will be held at Lander College for Women at Touro College in New York City, USA, from 14-17 July. The conference is co-hosted in partnership with Touro College. Proposals for paper presentations, poster sessions, workshops, focused discussions, or colloquia are invited, addressing learning through one of the following themes:

- Theme 1: Pedagogy and Curriculum
- Theme 2: Assessment and Evaluation
- Theme 3: Educational Organization and Leadership
- Theme 4: Early Childhood Learning
- Theme 5: Learning in Higher Education
- Theme 6: Adult, Community, and Professional Learning
- Theme 7: Learner Diversity and Identities
- Theme 8: Technologies in Learning
- Theme 9: Literacies Learning
- Theme 10: Science, Mathematics, and Technology Learning

Presenters also have the option to submit completed papers to one of fully peer-reviewed journals in The Learner Collection of journals. If you are unable to attend the conference, you may still join the community and submit your article for peer review and possible publication, upload an online presentation, and enjoy subscriber access to the journal.

Proposals are reviewed on rolling deadlines. The final proposal submission deadline to qualify for regular registration is 1 May 2014 (title and short abstract). Proposals submitted after this day will be accommodated in non-themed sessions at the conference or are eligible for community membership registrations (no attendance at conference required with community membership presentations).
