OVERVIEW

INTED2017 will provide the ideal platform to present your projects and experiences to an international audience in three different formats (oral, poster or virtual).

Also, it will offer participants an overview of the current situation of education, technology and development of teaching and learning methods. You will be able to listen to experts from different countries, representing all continents.

If you wish to present your projects and be part of a large international networking event, then do not miss the opportunity to come to INTED2017.

A TRULY INTERNATIONAL EVENT

After 11 years, INTED has become an annual meeting point for lecturers, researchers, professors, educational scientists and technologists.

Every year, INTED brings together over 700 delegates from 80 different countries.
