Dear Scholars, Students, NGO and governmental representatives:

We are happy to announce SDC 2013, hosted by Tomorrow People Organization www.tomorrowpeople.org.

We are proud to invite you to join us at Sustainable Development Conference 2013: Green technology, Renewable energy and Environmental protection, that will take place from June 21st-23rd 2013 in Bangkok, Thailand.

The official language of the conference is English. Attendance of over 100 delegates from more than 40 countries is expected.

This highly exciting and challenging international Conference is intended to be a forum, discussion and networking place for academics, researchers, professionals, administrators, educational leaders, policy makers, industry representatives, advanced students, and others.

More specifically, it targets:

- Scholars: Learn some new approaches, share your research with colleagues from around the world.
- Government officials and policy makers: Learn about the best practices, educational development strategies and educational systems around the world; network with other policy makers and NGOs working in the field of supporting the educational development.
- NGOs: Network with other international NGOs, possible donors and colleagues from around the world and share your achievements and strategies with others.
- Graduate students: Meet your colleagues from around the world, make new friends, and improve your knowledge and communication skills.
- Company representatives: Chance to improve your leadership skills, learn more about the importance of permanent education in achieving the high performances of your organization, meet your colleagues, exchange ideas and establish new connections and partnerships.

- Others: Anyone interested in making some positive changes around them and gaining new knowledge, skills and friends and becoming more useful to their own communities.

Sustainable Development Conference 2013 will provide unlimited resources and opportunities to interact with prominent leaders in the field and greatly expand on your global network of scholars and professionals.

We look forward to seeing you in Bangkok in June!
