You are invited to participate in the 2013 Asian Conference in Education and Technology (ACET) in Seoul, South Korea. The Conference will be held from July 24-26, 2013 at the Renaissance Seoul Hotel, Seoul, South Korea. Successful conferences of IAMURE had been staged at the Marco Polo Hotel, Davao City; JW Marriott Hotel, Jakarta, Indonesia; Marina Bay Sands Convention Centre, Singapore; JW Marriott Hotel, Bangkok, Thailand; Marco Polo Plaza Cebu, Cebu City Philippines; Renaissance Hotel, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

Seoul is the largest city and the capital of the Republic of South Korea. As the cultural, economic and political epicenter of the country, nearly half of South Koreans live in Seoul. It is also home to major commercial companies such as Samsung, LG and Hyundai. Additionally, Seoul has hosted important global events, including the 1986 Asian Games, 1998 Summer Olympics and 2002 FIFA World Cup and will host the G-20 Summit in November 2010. The city of Seoul cherishes its heritage and carefully maintains its historical monuments, royal palaces and temples. In addition, Seoul is a city on the move, constantly revitalizing itself, balancing ultra-modern renewal with careful restoration of its ancient buildings and preservation of the environment. The mountains surrounding Seoul are breathtaking and the Han River flowing through the center of the city offers scenic recreational escapes. Here in Seoul, you will find a harmony of the past and present, history and future, culture, economy and environment. Seoul is a global city that blends the culture of yesterday with the trends of today and the hopes of tomorrow.
