Dear Scholars, Students, NGO and governmental representatives:

We are happy to announce PSpC 2014, hosted by the Tomorrow People Organization. This highly exciting and challenging international Conference is intended to be a forum, discussion and networking place for academics, researchers, professionals, administrators, educational leaders, policy makers, industry representatives, advanced students, and others interested in the areas of sustainable development, public policy and poverty alleviation.

More specifically, it targets:

Scholars: Share your research, learn some new approaches, hear about others' experiences and pass on your knowledge and experience.

Government officials and policy makers: Learn about the best practices, educational development strategies and educational systems around the world; network with other policy makers and NGOs working in the field of supporting sustainable development and poverty alleviation.

NGOs: Network with other international NGOs, possible donors and colleagues from around the world and share your achievements and strategies with others.

Graduate students: Meet your colleagues from around the world, make new friends, and improve your knowledge and communication skills.

Company representatives: This is a chance to improve your leadership skills, learn more about the importance of social responsibility in achieving the high performances of your organization, meet your colleagues, exchange ideas and establish new connections and partnerships.

Others: Anyone who is interested in making some positive changes around them and gaining new knowledge, skills and friends and becoming more useful to their own communities.

Poverty Alleviation and Social Protection 2014 will provide unlimited resources and opportunities to interact with prominent leaders in the related fields and greatly expand on your global network of scholars and professionals.

We welcome: ORAL, POSTER and VIRTUAL presentations. Early submissions are strongly encouraged due to limited space in the venue, as applications are reviewed on a rolling admission basis – as long as space is available.

The conference topics include, but are not limited to:

Rural development, Agricultural development, Water management, Social science, Social work, Social protection, Public policy, Social inclusion, Social policy, Public health, Education, Vocational education, Gender studies, Ethnicity, Poverty, Agriculture, Empowerment, People with disabilities, Development, Economics, Culture, Rural education, Food safety, Politics, Sustainable development, other related areas.

Papers presented at the conference will be published in a dedicated ISBN publication of PSPC2014 Conference Proceedings.
